

Revenue Potential Report

Executive Summary

LegacyShield Pro is a financial literacy and estate planning SaaS platform built to serve working and middle-class families in the Washington, DC metropolitan area — with an initial focus on Black families who are statistically underinsured and underserved by traditional financial planning services.

Launching June 5, 2026, LegacyShield Pro operates a multi-stream revenue model combining monthly subscriptions, educational workshops, life insurance affiliate partnerships, and a 20% recurring affiliate referral program. This report outlines conservative, moderate, and optimistic revenue projections for Years 1 through 3.

Market Opportunity

Market Segment	Estimated Size	Opportunity
DC Metro Area Households	2.7 Million	Primary target geography
Working/Middle-Class Families	~850,000	Core subscriber demographic
Black Families (Underinsured)	~340,000	Highest-need, underserved segment
Federal Workers & Retirees	~200,000	Estate planning education need
First Responders & Veterans	~75,000	Direct connection via founder

Revenue Streams

1. Monthly Subscriptions

$39/month per member

Core recurring revenue. Members gain full access to estate planning courses, will templates, life insurance guides, and financial literacy modules. First month promo: $1.

2. Educational Workshops

$149 per attendee

In-person and virtual workshops covering estate planning, life insurance, and generational wealth building. Projected 2-4 events per quarter with 20-50 attendees each.

3. Life Insurance Affiliate Referrals

$50–$500 per referral

Partnership with licensed life insurance providers. LegacyShield Pro earns referral commissions for every member referred to a life insurance product. Average commission estimated at $150 per conversion.

4. Rewardful Affiliate Program

20% recurring commission shared

Affiliates earn 20% of every subscriber they refer — creating a viral growth loop. LegacyShield Pro retains 80% of subscription revenue from affiliate-referred subscribers.
